Cordish Dixon Private Equity Fund IV

Successful Offer closes oversubscribed, raising over $188 million

Walsh & Company Investments Limited, as responsible entity of Cordish Dixon Private Equity Fund IV (Fund), is pleased to advise the successful completion of its capital raising (Offer). The Offer was oversubscribed with applications received totalling more than $188 million in total commitments.

“We are very pleased that the raising has been so widely embraced by investors. The strong response we have received demonstrates the confidence that investors have in our strategy. Investing alongside Cordish Private Ventures in US-based, small-to-mid sized, operating businesses continues to be a unique and attractive opportunity,” said Alex MacLachlan, CEO, Walsh & Company.

Units are expected to be issued on or around 6 April 2018.
